Redding Man Receives 10 Years In Prison

April 12, 2011
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Senior Deputy District Attorney: Kelly Kafel
(530)245-6300

Redding, CA - Today, Jeffrey Wayne Longmire, 47 of Redding, pleaded guilty to possessing the chemicals needed to manufacture methamphetamine and to having a prior conviction for transporting methamphetamine.

Honorable Judge James Ruggerio accepted the guilty plea from Longmire and immediately sentenced him to 10 years in state prison.

The charges stemmed from a February 15, 2011 traffic stop. Officers from the Redding Police Department pulled Longmire over and located numerous items in the trunk of the car that are used for the manufacturing of methamphetamine, including pseudoephedrine tablets.
