Action Items

A motion was made, seconded, and approved to add a Division Director position to Probation to help with the implementation and ongoing operation related to realignment. There was general discussion regarding funding of the position, and it was agreed that salary savings would be used. However, Wes Forman indicated that he would bring the matter back to the committee if it was determined that the use of salary savings was not appropriate.

Review and edits of the plan continued. Approval was postponed until the next meeting.

A motion was made, seconded, and approved to pay committee related staff expenses in the amount of $56,780.28. Several agencies have not submitted expenses and were encouraged to do so.

Discussion of a committee response to the Grand Jury report was tabled to the next meeting.

A motion was made, seconded, and approved to support in concept the Sheriff's interest in building a new jail. Specific language was submitted by Tom Bosenko.
