Shasta County – There is now a new way for the public to make sure they never miss out on important information.

Visitors to the Board of Supervisors' page on the Shasta County website can now quickly and easily sign up to receive copies of meeting Agendas and other news directly to their e-mail. Those who opt in to receive updates will get a preview of the next meeting's agenda as well as a link to the full agenda.

“Shasta County has a very engaged public. We want to make it as easy as possible for them to access information about the issues that our Board of Supervisors will be weighing,” said Shasta County Public Information Officer Tim Mapes.

In addition to advance notice of meeting agendas, those who sign up will also receive a recap of Board decisions at the conclusion of meetings.

Board of Supervisors meetings are livestreamed, and recordings of previous meetings are published and can be watched online by going to:
