

The 2022 Mother-Baby Friendly Workplace Award

Does your employer or another business comply with lactation accommodation laws and provide a family-friendly work environment? Nominate them for an award!

The North State Breastfeeding Coalition presents the 2022 “Mother-Baby Friendly Workplace Award” to businesses that support lactation accommodation. Award recipients will be notified in late March.

To nominate someone for this award, fill out this form and submit by: March 15, 2022 to:

krichey@co.shasta.ca.us or mail to:

Kristi Richey, 1670 Market Street, Ste 300, Redding, CA 96001

Person Making the Nomination:

Business Name:

Business Address:

Business Phone Number:

Please check all that apply:

- Business provides a private room other than a bathroom, in close proximity to the work location or expressing milk or nursing.
- The lactation room has supportive amenities including, but not limited, to a comfortable chair, an inside lock on the door, a small table, and an electrical outlet.
- Business provides all breastfeeding employees flexible breaks to express milk or nurse.
- Business has a written breastfeeding support policy/guidelines, and it is communicated to all employees.

Let us know why you think this business deserves recognition as a Mother-Baby Friendly Workplace: