

Syphilis

It's Back.

Get Tested.

Get Treated.

Shasta County
Health & Human Services Agency

Syphilis is a sexually transmitted disease (STD) spread during unprotected oral, anal or vaginal sex.

Syphilis is caused by corkscrew-shaped bacteria that burrow into body parts causing very serious damage.

Syphilis can cause infection even with NO symptoms, and if not treated, can cause:

Lesions

Rash

Hair Loss

Dementia

Blindness

Organ Failure

Miscarriage

Birth Deformities

Stillborn Babies

Visit your healthcare provider or call:

- Planned Parenthood: 351-7100
- Women's Health Specialists: 221-0193
- Shasta Community Health Center: 246-5710

STD530.com
(530) 225-5591

Shasta County Health &
Human Services Agency