Did you know that good oral health habits, like regular brushing, flossing, and dental visits, can help children succeed in the classroom? Having a healthy mouth is an important part of school readiness. A healthy mouth helps children talk, smile and develop into who they're meant to be.

Visit SmileCalifornia.org to learn more about oral health and school readiness. To find a dentist near you, call (530) 225-5122.

Protect Your Family From Lead

Good Nutrition is one way to protect your family from lead. Start with breastmilk. It provides the best nutrition and many health benefits for babies. It is important that your family eats healthy meals and snacks lower in fat. Too much fat can increase lead absorption. Eat more baked, broiled and boiled foods instead of fried foods. Eat lean meats instead of high fat meats such as sausage, bacon and hot dogs.

Happy
Summer
