- What is allowed to be open now in Shasta County? We are not on the monitoring list, so our county has more businesses and industries open than many others in California. Restaurants can be open for outdoor dining, take-out and delivery. Gyms, hair salons, barber shops, churches, schools and higher education are also allowed to be open in person with modifications, among other groups. The complete list, along with guidance for each industry, is available at ShastaReady.org – click on “Roadmap to Recovery” and select “What can open now.”
- Anyone can be tested for COVID-19. Go to ShastaReady.org and click on “Get tested.”
