- We can still enjoy some of our favorite Halloween traditions – and create some new ones – while keeping our kids and neighbors safe. Door-to-door trick or treating is not recommended, but if you do choose to participate, here are some tips:
  - Don't trick-or-treat or pass out candy if you've been around someone who has/might have COVID-19.
  - Screen yourself for symptoms before trick-or-treating, and only go out with your household.
  - Wear a face covering under your Halloween mask and don't share masks
  - Wash hands before and after you trick-or-treat.
  - Alternatives to trick-or-treating include having a Halloween movie marathon, hunting for candy or prizes at your home, baking spooky treats, or having a drive-through or virtual costume contest.
- The weather is beautiful, and Walktober is wrapping up this weekend – it's the perfect time to get some fresh air and exercise. Find a walking trail that suits your fancy at www.HealthyShasta.org. Click on "Healthy Shasta Walks."
